

RCC Summer Camp 2011

Be Prepared 6.13, 6.20

...for the summer of a lifetime. We'll start the summer off right as we train for the 6th annual polar bear swim. Things will get icy as we make Root beer Floats and boats that float, then we'll sink our teeth into edible aquariums. An Angry Birds Tournament will have feathers flying! Cool birds will be a plenty at the Aviary and then we'll tour the Consol Energy Arena, home of our Pittsburgh Penguins. RCC's first ever "Summer Classic" will close out what is sure to be the summer of a lifetime!

Hakuna Matata 6.27, 7.5

It's our problem free, philosophy...until you're faced with a physical challenge in Double Dare! There will be nothing daring about a trip to Wildwood Highlands where splash wars are sure to erupt. Back at RCC, we'll be busy creating cars for our first ever Antique Car Show then we'll race to Waterworks Cinema to see Cars 2.

I Just Can't Wait To Be King 7.11, 7.18

You are cordially invited to RCC's very own Royal Wedding. We'll be crowning our first ever queen and king of camp. Prior to the ceremony, the royal gathering will parade the grounds in our 1st Parade of Splendor. A mansion tour at Hartwood Acres is a must then we'll be party in style as we cruise the three rivers with Jungle Jane on the Gateway Clipper.

Circle of Life 7.25, 8.1

An unwinding path of fun and adventure will await us as we prepare for a Talent Themed Circus. We'll check out animals large and small at the Pittsburgh Zoo and then create paper mache replicas to display for all to see. Animals aren't the only thing growing though. A trip to Reilly's Summer Seat Farm will provide us with the "secret" ingredient for Iron Chef RCC.

Can You Feel the Love Tonight 8.8, 8.15

We'll all be sad to see another great summer come to an end, but we'll make sure to go out in style as we have a Kiss it Goodbye Party. A trip to Apple Hill Playhouse should provide inspiration for our stars in the making as they prepare to grace the RCC Stage in the 2nd annual RCC Musical, The Lion King. After all of our hard work, the stars of the stage (and their fans too) will head out for lunch on the town at Max and Erma's and then frolic the day away at Squaw Valley Park.
